Butler Tech/Northwest

I am a sophomore from Cincinnati, Ohio. To me, DECA is more than an organization—It's an opportunity to lead, develop, and explore. DECA is where I belong, and I am eager to contribute to and give back to this amazing community.

MY MISSION

Together, we can unleashing the power of creativity to paint a brighter future in business and leadership. I'm committed to helping DECA members grow into high-achieving leaders by creating opportunities, fostering innovation, and building a strong network of driven individuals. I am truly thankful for the opportunity to be part of such an incredible community, surrounded by inspiring people, and I look forward to contributing and growing alongside them. This year is all about growth, success, and making a lasting impact—let's make it happen!
